

About the Authors and the Editor

Charles L. Woodard

Notes on each author are included at the back of the volume.

Editor Charles L. Woodard, a Distinguished Professor of English at South Dakota State University, has been teaching at the school since 1975. He grew up in White, South Dakota, where he played football, basketball, and other sports while attending high school there. After obtaining his bachelor's degree from Dakota State University and his Master's degree from the University of Nebraska at Omaha, he served as a Marine Corps infantry officer in Vietnam. The dissertation that he wrote to obtain his Ph.D. degree at the University of Oklahoma was on Kiowa novelist and poet N. Scott Momaday. Woodard is author of Ancestral Voice: Conversations with N. Scott Momaday (1991) and editor of As Far As I Can See: Contemporary Writing of the Middle Plains (1989). He has edited more than a dozen books, including several volumes written by native writers and books on subjects ranging from country churches and one-room schools to home front stories during America's wars.
