

INTERNET ACCESS POLICY

I do not wish my child to have access to the internet

I understand that I am responsible for the information accessed by myself/my child.

I understand the Library assumes no responsibility for any damages, direct or indirect, from use of its electronic information system, or any consequence thereof.

I understand that if myself or my child is deemed by the Library staff to be misusing the internet or failing to comply with the Library's computer procedures, Library internet access privileges and/or Library use privileges will be revoked.

Note:

Edith B. Siegrist Vermillion Public Library has no control over information accessed through the internet and is not responsible for inadvertent exposure to potentially offensive material accessed by internet users on Library equipment.

Parents/guardians are solely responsible and are advised to provide guidance/supervision of their children's internet use.

Minors must be able to log in and operate a computer independently or have a parent or legal guardian assist them.

See full Internet Use Policy on our website at vermillionpubliclibrary.org/about/policies.

If a parent or guardian is signing below for a minor, the undersigned accepts responsibility for the minor's use of the electronic information system.
