

Each time you (or anyone else) reads a book to your child, list the title in this reading log. If you read a book more than once, you can record it each time!

Log
201-300

201 _____

202 _____

203 _____

204 _____

205 _____

206 _____

207 _____

208 _____

209 _____

210 _____

211 _____

212 _____

213 _____

214 _____

215 _____

216 _____

217 _____

218 _____

219 _____

220 _____

221 _____

222 _____

223 _____

224 _____

225 _____

226 _____

227 _____

228 _____

229 _____

230 _____

231 _____

232 _____

233 _____

234 _____

235 _____

236 _____

237 _____

238 _____

239 _____

240 _____

241 _____

242 _____

243 _____

244 _____

245 _____

246 _____

247 _____

248 _____

249 _____

250 _____

Literacy tip:

Repetition is great for young children. Not only is it important in growing literacy skills, repetition is also comforting and can build confidence by allowing the child to help tell the story.

251

252

253

254

255

256

257

258

259

260

261

262

263

264

265

266

267

268

269

270

271

272

273

274

275

276

277

278

279

280

281

282

283

284

285

286

287

288

289

290

291

292

293

294

295

296

297

298

299

300

Congratulations! You have read 300 books! Bring this log to the library for a sticker, a new reading log, and to see your name move across the reading wall!

You earned a sticker!